BACKGROUND

Dr. Kinahan started his medical career at UBC in Vancouver in 1980, but his entrepreneurial efforts a few years earlier as a realtor in Vancouver. Ms. Lynn Connell, a Vancouver lawyer, suggested he get his license, and his business interests began! After obtaining his MD degree in 1984, he trained as a specialist urologist at UBC and University of Toronto, and set up practice in Kelowna, BC. In early 2001, he founded Optimed Software, and the flagship product Accuro@EMR , is now the most successful doctor's office software in Canadian history! His current endeavours include development of bladder care centres in Canada, vineyard and winery development, and service to the new medical school in Kelowna. He is spearheading overseas volunteer teaching efforts on behalf of the national urology organization, the Canadian Urological Association, currently working at the Kilimanjaro Christian Medical Centre in Moshi, Tanzania.
