

Department of
UROLOGIC SCIENCES
UBC

Mark K. Nigro, BSc, MD, FRCSC

Clinical Professor, Division of Urology
Active Staff, Vancouver Hospital
Consultant Staff, Children's & Women's Health Centre of British Columbia, St. Paul's Hospital, G.F. Strong Center and Pearson Hospital

BSc. University of Alberta, 1975
MD University of Alberta, 1980
Fellow Royal College of Surgeons of Canada (FRCSC), 1985

Dr. Nigro has a fulltime appointment as Clinical Professor in the Division of Adult Urology at Vancouver Hospital. In addition to general Adult Urologic cases, he has a special interest in Transplantation, Neurogenic bladder, infertility, and urologic prosthetics. He has been actively involved in undergraduate and postgraduate education.

He has been Director for the Provincial Organ Retrieval Program from 1993 to present. He has been surgical director for renal transplant at VGH from 1998 to the present. He is co-director and co-founder of the Vancouver Ejaculatory Dysfunction clinic which is a Canadian center for infertility problems to spinal injured males.